

Dome Colony X in the San Gabriels...

Dome Colony X in the San Gabriels welcomes you into a mountain colony of geodesic domes for temporary colonization, squatting, taking over, and making yourself at home in four communal tents: Ecology Dome, Gastronomy Dome, Literary Dome and Drums & Skins Dome. The occupation began on August 25th, 2009 with 17 groups colonizing, installing projects, setting up shop, scheduling meetings, staging performances, and hosting intimate gatherings. See the menu board at the front entry for today's activities.

The space is surrounded by a perimeter seating system and focused on a 15' diameter center stage for theater-in-the-round, open mic, soapboxing, and impromptu theater. The Colony walls are painted with a continuous silhouette of Los Angeles' San Gabriel Mountains exactly as viewed from Colony coordinator Fritz Haeg's geodesic dome residence on Sundown Drive, where he hosted a series of gatherings known as Sundown Salon starting in 2001. Concluding in 2006 after thirty events, they have been fully documented in 380 pages of text and photos in a 140 foot long accordion book, The Sundown Salon Unfolding Archive (Evil Twin Publications, 2009), now on view next door at Artbook @ X.

Each colonist will be posting a schedule of events in their dome. For the most current and comprehensive fall schedule go to fritzaeg.com. If you would like to officially colonize, or add events to the Dome Colony calendar, email studio@fritzaeg.com.

Colony hours - Aug 26 - 31: Tuesdays - Fridays, 12 - 8pm; Sep 1 to Oct 24: Wednesdays - Saturdays, 11am - 6pm.
